SEE MOSCOW CONCEDING ON SPECIFIC ISSUES BEFORE JAPAN RESUMES NORMAL RELATIONS

TOKYO.—Moscow may find it has won an empty victory if it insists upon resumption of diplomatic relations with Japan without making concessions on issues of war prisoners in the northern territories and fishing rights.

This was the opinion of Western observers here this week as negotiations were resumed in Moscow between delegations headed by Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu and Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri T. Shepilov.

Indications at the moment are that the Japanese delegation may eventually bow to Moscow's insistence that diplomatic relations be resumed first, and outstanding specific issues negotiated later.

But if this is the case, there will be widespread resentment here in Japan. And Kremlin leaders may find they have muffed the primary purpose of their negotiations, namely to achieve a position of competition in Japan with the United States.

The reason behind this is that within the past few days there has been a surprising unification of public opinion here over the treaty question.

Whereas before, the Japanese [illegible] has been weakened by [illegible] squabbling at home it now enjoys what amounts to bi-partisan support.

This was clinched when the [illegible] Socialists, on the eve of Mr. Shigemitsu's departure for Moscow, came out in favor of settling the outstanding issues prior to any treaty signature.

What this means, therefore, is this:

Japan is unwilling to let the issue of "normalization of diplomatic relations" with the Soviet Union slide for another year. Besides, Moscow has the Japanese at a distinct bargaining disadvantage because of its blockade of the Northern Pacific fishing waters which are a vital economic factor.

Thus sometime between now and October Mr. Shigemitsu may reluctantly agree to Soviet terms, even if it means following the so-called Adenauer formula.

(West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, in negotiations at the Kremlin September 9 to 13 last year, agreed to normalization of diplomatic relations even though the Soviets offered no substantive concessions.)

HORTICULTURISTS TO TOUR GARDENS OF JAPAN

Conducted by John F. Clark, secretary of the Ontario Horticultural association, 20 leading horticulturists of Canada and the United States leave New York by air, Sept. 15, on a six-week tour of the finest botanical gardens of the Orient.

This aerial adventure of some 10,000 miles will include visits to the gardens of the Imperial Japanese palace in Tokyo, and to such other Japanese centres as Kamakura, Miyanoshita, Kyoto, Nara, Kobe, Takamatsu, Hiroshima and Osaka. The gardens of Chiang Kai-Shek on Formosa are also scheduled for inspection.

The sponsors of this famous [illegible] tour are the Massachusetts Horticultural society and the Ontario organization aforementioned. The Federal government, Ottawa, are also cooperating in various phases of it.

Mr. Clark is of the opinion that a great deal of goodwill can be engendered between nations by such trips.

Smog-Lites

By MARY OYAMA in the Pacific Citizen

LOS ANGELES.—Artist Tera Shimada, who always has interesting anecdotes to relate, tells of the early days when he was employed as a schoolboy by a prominent San Francisco family. A Japanese cook, working in the same household, decided he would like a change of scenery and hired out with an adventure-minded American boy to work on a ship headed for the South Seas, captained by a rugged, dashing man who had a great love for the high seas. However, dreams of romantic adventure and restful living soon vanished for the erstwhile cook when seasickness overtook him.

Relinquishing his dreams he was more than glad to disembark at the first port for a homeward return, while his "hakujin" crony was willing to continue on with the adventurous captain. While all the principals involved in the sea-trip seemed like ordinary Joes and Shimada-san knew though he later learned that the young man who continued on the journey refusing to disembark was Martin Johnson, the jungle explorer, the dashing captain none other than Jack London and the ship which made the Japanese cook so woozy, London's famous "tub" THE SNARK.

OF PEOPLE AND PLACES

Retrospecting upon our own life, we regret that we cannot report any interesting comedies from our early days or any even remote connections with author London except the simple fact that we were born in a chicken-and-egg raising town of Petaluma, Calif., which is in Sonoma County and located near Jack London's famous "Valley of the Moon".

Our earlier memories revert to latter World War I days when our family lived in Suisun Valley at the foot of Mt. Twin Sisters. We used to hear the Issei say as they pointed toward the sister mountains, "Roy Gardener, the mail bandit, is hiding up in the hills behind those peaks on the Napa County side—." And they weren't kidding either.

As a child we always thought the mountain had a sinister look about it toward dusk, even without hearing such reports. Old folks' tales about the wild cats which they referred to as "yama-neko" scared us kids into round-eyed silence. With our lively imaginations we were quite sure that an "Oni" ogre lived in the wooded slope across the valley and that every evening at sunset, if we listened carefully, we could hear IT tolling, tolling a requiem bell.

For the Dead, of course. Now that we are older and wiser, we know that it was nothing but a mess call for supper being clanged out on an adjoining ranch, by a "cook-san" banging on an old rusty plough share suspended from a tree.

DEATH OF AN OGRE

There was also another kind of ogre of which the Issei often spoke and referred to as "Nippon-jin Haiseki" (discrimination against Japanese), the meaning of which we only vaguely grasped but to our ears had a sinister sound. It was a vast, impersonal THEY composed of some "hakujins" who did not like the Japanese people and which we visualized as a group of people—specifically as legislators with moustaches like Senator Phelan. (Pictures of the late anti-Japanese leader in the vernacular papers must have registered on our subconscious.) At any rate, the mere sound of the ominous word "haiseki" conjured up a helpless isolated feeling.

Looking back on the past, we feel that both Issei and Nisei have come a long, long way since those haiseki bogey-man days. We no longer feel helpless or isolated. The Issei have acquired American citizenship, the Nisei have the JACL, and some of the witches and bogie of the past have been successfully exorcised. However, let no Nisei think that all of our problems have vanished. Whether one belongs to JACL or not and regardless of whether he is "pro" JACL or "anti", every Nisei must admit that we still have a few more dragons to slay.

We often wonder how the average Nisei who does not belong to any group welfare organization expects to tackle and solve such immediate problems as discrimination in housing. Does he think about it at all, or does he push it out of mind because of an uncomfortable feeling? Does he feel that people who write on such subjects are very "square" and dull?

Well, dull or no, we just hope that any honest Nisei with an open mind will get an enough curiosity and interest to look in on some of the coming JACL national convention sessions. We would [illegible] better jobs and better housing, fellow Nisei and bigger [illegible] practical plans and real adventures in living.

Such knowledge would not hurt anyone.

觀光宣傳

△米國の新聞や雜誌にカナダは大きい廣告を出して觀光宣傳をしている。そのキャッチフレーズに「人混みのないカナダ」と米人客を誘致しているのはいいとしても、一緒に出している寫眞はあまりにその事實を誇張しすぎているようだ。
△たくさん、場所はたぶん沿海州のビーチだろう。ずっと見渡すかぎりのサンディ・ビーチ（砂濱）に、たった二、三人の男女青年が水泳着で陽を浴びている風景だ。まさかいくら人混みが少いといっても、こんなに極端なことはないはずだ。
△米希殘得をキラって宣傳に大衆なカナダではあるが國民自身に「まずカナダを見よ」と大いに宣傳する必要があるとし、カナダ國民の知らないカナダを宣傳するわけにはいかないではないか、と非難の聲があがっている。
△なにしろ國民の約二〇パーセントは隣りの州へも行ったことがないというくらいだが、國民全體の七五パーセントは米國も旅行したことがあると答えている。それに比べて米國からのお客は、一九四六年から年々二〇ないし三〇パーセントずつ減って來ている。
△カナダ人が昨年國外で使った金額はざっと四億四千百万弗。外人が昨年カナダに落した金額は三億三千九百万弗。差引一億一千一百万弗の赤字で、カナダの觀光事業は儲けていないことになる。

NISHITA OPTIONED TO TEXAS LEAGUE

MONTREAL.—Montreal Royals of the International League announced Thursday the optioning of Hawaiian Nisei hurler Bill Nishita to Fort Worth Cats of the double A Texas League.

Royals also announced they have obtained pitchers Bob Milliken from Macon (South Atlantic) and John Ceplo from St. Paul (American Association). Catcher pitcher Billy Harris has been sidelined by sore arm.

In making the announcement, Manager Greg Mulleavy said that it was his hope that Nishita would "find himself" in the lesser league. He hadn't given up on the pitcher, he said, and figured that the International League was too fast for him in his first season in Organized Baseball.

Nishita signed last spring for a $4,000 bonus, departed with a 4-6 record and a 4.97 earned-run average. While he showed promise at times, he didn't measure up to expectations and frequently became moody and discouraged, almost despondent, and never fully acclimatized himself with the Royals. He may come back in 1957. —Montreal Star

BPs To Meet Oshawa In Ontario Playdowns

Burke-Pastor beat Clapps 2-0 Thursday as Marianne Johnston threw a three-hitter. Bev Fournier smashed two triples and Betty Fenton had two hits. Second baseman Aky Tani was a defensive standout as Marianne was often in trouble, walking six.

BPs lost 5-3 to Orphans in a rain-interrupted game Tuesday.

Eddie Hisaki's girls will start a 2-of-3 weekly elimination series in Ontario playdowns when they travel to Oshawa Monday, Aug. 13. Monday at 2 p.m. they'll play an exhibition against Jack Yoshimochi's Hamilton team. Next week they're scheduled Tuesday and Thursday against Orphans and Clapps.

HAMILTON J.C.C.A. AND NISEI BUSINESS FIRMS SPONSOR SOFTBALL NINE

HAMILTON. — Last year's sandlot delegates from the Ambitious City, who made a grandstand showing at the annual Toronto JCCA Softball Tournament in Toronto with plenty of power at the plate plus an infallible fielding display, are expected to be a much improved team this year.

Ideal baseball weather has promoted enthusiasm among the ball-happy boys from Hamilton. Our '56 dream team will be backed by the Hamilton JCCA with additional assistance coming from prominent JC business firms in Hamilton.

Tom Kawamoto, who has ably accepted the reins of the Hamilton entry, is very impressed with the showing of the players at our first practice session, although some of the prospects require more seasoning before the Labor Day weekend.

Further seasoning of a different nature would be gladly appreciated by the players in the form of fanfare. All gals and guys who like to see Hamilton win are more than welcome to support our Hamilton entry.

Also, any Hamiltonians with previous softball experience who were unable to turn out at the first practice are asked to contact Tom or Jim Kawamoto (JA. 9-7354). —Fred

Urge Netters File Early For Ninth Nisei Open; Interchurch Next Week

Main party of Toronto Nisei headed for Cleveland last night and others are leaving today for the two-day interclub tennis match with Nisei in the Ohio city. Nearly 30 Torontonians—about 20 players—are making the trip.

Doubles matches will open the meet today and singles will be held Sunday. Sue and Tom Iwasaki, vacationing in the eastern states, are expected to bolster the Canadian team. Cleveland officials have announced they'll take movies of this year's tourney.

Today's deadline for entries in the Interchurch Open tournament scheduled for one week starting next Saturday, Aug. 11. Mary Ebata and Chie Yanagisawa will be in there in defense of their ladies' doubles title, while Mary and Mickey Matsubayashi will top the mixed doubles seedings as last year's champs. Fuzzy Fujiwara-Edzy Tsujimoto and Tom Nobuoka-John Tanaka will be out after the men's doubles championship being vacated by George Ideguchi-Hirano.

Entries for the ninth annual Nisei Open should be filed as soon as possible as play will start Saturday, Aug. 18.

CHRISTIE, REGENT, YAMADA TOP SUNDAY LOOP

A three-way tie has developed in the Toronto Nisei baseball league. Regents edged Christie 9-8 to bring the candymakers down from the top spot and Yamadas kept pace by nipping Kidokan 4-3. Christie Sweets holds the edge in percentage by virtue of one less defeat.

Meanwhile the youthful Main Auto Body nine gained lots of ground in winning a four-point game from Bussel, 7-4. The teams decided to make it a double-point effort to catch up on a postponed game.

Shin Taira led Main Auto with a double and a single. Ike Shiozaki and Kunio Suyama split the losers' four hits, Ike doubling once and Kunio tripling.

Regents and Christie played a sloppy game which was finally decided by pitcher Frank Nishimura's game-winning single in the last of the sixth. Jackie Tanaka was the best batsman of the day, collecting a double, triple and home-run in three trips. Aoki and Sumi each doubled for the pressmen.
